Genoua, April 21. N. S.

ON the 18th Inſtant departed hence a Genoueſe Ship for Final, to take on Board 800 Foot Soldiers, (who come from Milan) and carry them to Barcelona; and 'tis ſaid that ſeveral other Regiments will be ſent thither from the State of Milan, to reinforce the Spaniſh Army in Catalonia.

Leghorne, April 22. We have Advice by a Brigantine arrived in this Port from Malta, that a French Man of War of 60 Guns, commanded by the Marquis de Palas, having met a Dutch Privateer called the Valkeren, they engaged, and after exchanging ſeveral Broad-ſides, the French boarded the Privateer, and ſoon after both Ships blew up, and all the Men were loſt; There were divers Volontiers, and among theſe ſeveral Knights of Malta on Board the French Ship. A Bark is arrived here from Argiers, the Maſter whereof ſays, that the War continued between that Government and the Emperor of Morocco, and that the Dey was preparing to go into the Field with a numerous Army. The Algerines have 15 Sail of all ſorts now at Sea; ſome of which appeared the 17th at the Gorgona, a ſmall Iſland 6 Leagues from hence, where they landed Men, and having committed what Spoil they could, brought away ſeveral of the Inhabitants.

Milan, April 21. The Marquis de Leganez, our Governor, is gone to Turin, to confer with the Duke of Savoy about the further Meaſures that are to be taken to oblige the Italian Princes to pay the Arrears of Contributions due to the German Troops that ſerved the laſt year in Italy. The Regiment commanded by the Marquis d'Ali is marched to Final, where they are to embark for Catalonia; and two other Regiments have Orders to follow.

Venice, April 26. A Veſſel is arrived here who met near Corfou the Convoy that went laſt from hence; another great Convoy is preparing, and ſeveral Companies of new raiſed Soldiers are come to the Lido, and more are daily expected, who are to paſs with this Opportunity to the Levant.

Vienna, April 27. The Emperor has appointed Prince Eugene of Savoy, who was General of his Forces in Italy, to command the Imperial Army in Hungary this Summer under the Elector of Saxony; and he intends to part from hence in few days, to Review the Troops in their Quarters, and to haſten their march to the General Rendezvous between Buda and Eſſeck; where they are to be in a Body by the 20th or 24th of the next month. The Advices from the Frontiers ſay, the Grand Signior is not expected at Belgrade till the beginning of June, and that the Turkiſh Troops will Rendezvous about the ſame time near that place. The Biſhop of Paſſaw, the Emperor's Ambaſſador to the Dyet of Poland, has received his Diſpatches, and will ſet out the 29th Inſtant on his Journey thither.

Francfort, May 5. The Forces on both ſides continue to draw together, the Allies near Hailbron, and the French near Landau, and by the 20th of this month the Armies may be in a poſture to march and enter upon Action. Of the French Troops who have had their Quarters near the Moſelle, 'tis ſaid, a Body of 12000 are ordered to march towards Flanders.

Cologne, May 7. Several Brandenburg Regiments paſſed the Rhine yeſterday, and the day before, at Orſey and Rolnberg; and others have done the like at Weſel; They all march to Brabant. The Deputies of the Circle of Weſtphalia, who aſſembled here, ſeparated yeſterday, having adjuſted the Matters they met about, with mutual Satisfaction.

Hamburgh, May 7. The Letters from Dantzick of the firſt of this month adviſe, that the Queen Dowager of Poland arrived there the day before from Warſaw, and was received by the Burghers in Arms. They write from Warſaw of the 24th of April, that the Primate had held a great Council, in which, after a very warm Debate, 'twas reſolved, that a new Commiſſion ſhould be given to the Crown General to endeavour to diſperſe the Confederated Forces, and if he found it neceſſary to make uſe of Force, and call the Gentry to his aſſiſtance. The Abbot de Chaſteauneuf is arrived at Warſaw, being ſent by the French King to aſſiſt his Ambaſſador the Abbot de Polignac, in promoting the Intereſts of the Prince of Conti. The Provincial Dyets begun to meet to chooſe their Deputies for the General Dyet, which is to be held at Warſaw the 15th of this month to chooſe a King, and the Gentlemen are putting themſelves in a readineſs to appear on Horſeback at the ſame time.

Paris, May 6. The Mareſchal de Villeroy and Mareſchal Catinat, are gone for Flanders, and are to meet Mareſchal Boufflers and Monſieur Vauban at Valenciennes, and confer together about the Affairs of the Campagne. The Mareſchal de Choiſeul is on his Journey to Germany, and it's ſaid the Army he is to command, will be at their Rendezvous by the 16th of this month. The Mareſchals d'Eſtrees, Joyeuſe, and Tourville, are gone to their Stations on the Sea Coaſts, to command there as they did the laſt year. The Duke de Vendoſme, with his Brother the Great Prior, will ſet out the 8th of this month for Catalonia. The Marquis de Neſmonde ſailed with his Squadron from Breſt the 29th paſt; and the Ships under Monſieur Magnan are likewiſe gone to Sea from Rochefort; 'Tis not ſaid whither they are bound. The French Court is gone to Marli, and at their return from thence will go into Mourning for the Death of the King of Sueden. 'Tis certain, that the Ships commanded by the Sieur de Genes, which are returned from their Expedition in the Weſt-Indies, have loſt greateſt part of their Men, and many Officers, and did not take one Prize.

Bruſſels, May 8. The Elector of Bavaria is recovered of the Indiſpoſition which occaſioned his going the laſt week from the Army to Ghent; and
